

Press briefing The human rights week

In the context of December 10th, the Human Rights International Day, Romani CRISS and its partners are pleased to inform you about the events planned within the Human Rights Week, from 11th to 16th of December:

Monday, December 12th, 09.30 a.m. – Press conference

Launching of “Ethnic perception of discrimination by the Roma population” research report
Launching of “Best practice for politicians in regard to public discourse” guidelines

Monday, December 12th, 10.30 a.m – Official opening of Human Rights Academy – training course delivered by Romani CRISS, in partnership with Amnesty International and Harvard University FXB Center for Health and Human Rights, in view of creating a resource-persons network for Roma communities in Romania.

Wednesday, December 12th, 10.00 a.m. – Debate at the Romanian Parliament Public discourse on Roma in Romania – Implementation of the Political Parties Charta for a non-Racist Society, organised by Romani CRISS, in partnership with European Citizen Action Service, Pro Democracy Association and the Commission for Human Rights, religious denominations and minorities with the Romanian Senate.

Friday, December 16th, 12.00 a.m. – Video – conference at the USA Embassy in Bucharest with reverend Elbert Ransom, former assistant of Martin Luther King, attended by the participants of the Human Rights Academy.

Cezara David
PR Coordinator
Romani CRISS